

THAT BEAUTIFUL NEW SONG

"ONE FLEETING HOUR"

Note the first verse:
"When the twilight of eve dims
The sun's last ray
And the shades of the night gather fast;
There is one fleeting hour that I've prayed would stay, Full of joy and of pain that's passed.
And perhaps you may know of its wondrous spell,
Its smiles and its bitter tears;
And emotions arise that no words can tell,
As you look back o'er the years.

The beautiful words of this song coupled with a most beautiful melody give it the great popularity which it so richly deserves.

It's your own loss if you fail to hear it.
Published in five keys; with violin obligato.

RUSSIANS KEEP GERMANS BUSY

Berlin, Sept. 2.—Advancing on an 18-mile front against the important railway town of Halitz, the Russians have occupied the village of Horo-zanka, 10 miles northwest of Halitz, in a resumption of their Galician offensive.

The object of the new Russian drive apparently is to prevent the diversion of Austro-German troops to the Rumanian frontier. An official statement from the Austrian war office today, admitting slight withdrawals, said that the Russians attacked in strong force on the Halitz front in the angle formed by the Dneister and Zlota Lipa rivers. Near Zborow, on the river Stripa front, the Slavs also achieved some local successes, but their offensive was stopped by a counter-attack.

All other Russian attacks were beaten off, except at a few isolated places. The Austro-Germans captured two officers and 407 men.

Fires in the Forests—

During the period from August 20 to 31, according to reports received by Forest Supervisor Macduff, 20 fires have occurred in the Siskiyou National Forest, most of which, so far as known, were due to careless hunters and campers. Mr. Macduff states that every year the number of fires in-after the opening of the hunting sea-only 30 fires were reported but from August 20 to 31, 20 new fires were

Many Buy Gasoline—

With the possibility of a strike stopping further gasoline shipments, local car owners laid in a supply for an emergency. Friday 2,500 gallons were sold and this left only about 5,000 gallons in the big tank at the oil house. Attempts had been made to get a shipment, but as an embargo had been placed on the commodity this was impossible. C. C. Presley, local agent, had completed arrangements to receive shipments by way of Crescent City and bringing it from that place with auto trucks. A car of gas is expected soon.
